

31ST ANNUAL

Lenders & Credit Officers CONFERENCE

CBA's 31st Annual Lenders and Credit Officers Conference is an essential opportunity to develop new business relationships, where chief lending officers and chief credit officers meet to discuss the concerns and issues of an evolving lending market. By participating in this event, you will help shape future lending practices with this premier group of innovative executives and leading decision makers.

Speaker Bob McGibbon, field office supervisor with the FDIC will discuss HVCRE, stress testing, CECL conversions and more. Additional speakers are being confirmed, and conference sessions will include:

- CECL
- Stress testing
- HVCRE
- Asset based lending
- Vendor management
- HMDA
- Current credit trends
